

Select the Correct answer

Q1. Hepatic uptake of endogenous insulin is

- A. 20% of pancreatic output
- B. 60% of pancreatic output
- C. 40% of pancreatic output
- D. 80% of pancreatic output

Q2. Which combinations is correct about glargine?

- A. ↓ Stability in acidic pH and ↑ solubility in neutral pH
- B. ↑ Stability in alkaline pH and ↓ solubility in neutral pH
- C. ↑ Stability in acidic pH and ↓ solubility in neutral pH
- D. ↑ Stability in acidic pH and ↑ solubility in neutral pH

Q3. What out of the following is true about glargine?

- A. ↑Risk of Diabetic Retinopathy.
- B. Subcutaneous absorption not affected by exercise.
- C. Contraindicated in diabetic nephropathy

Q4. Which of these is not associated with insulin resistance?

- A. Android obesity
- B. Lipoatrophy
- C. Waist circumference in men ≥ 101 centimeter
- D. PCOD

Q5. Which one is comparatively weight neutral?

- A. Insulin
- B. Metformin.
- C. Vildagliptin.
- D. Liraglutide.

(Answers on page 42)